

BHARATH COACHING CENTRE

6th CBSE The living organism and their surroundings Total: 40

Science

Time: 2.00hrs

SECTION – A

5 x 1 = 5

1. The habitats of plants and animals that live in water are called ____ habitats.
2. The presence of a specific features which enables a plant or an animal to live in a particular habitat is called ____
3. Soil, water and air are the ____ factors of a hbitats.
4. Changes in our surrounding that make us respond to them are called ____
5. Plough, Mushrooms, Boat, Water, Radio are the examples of ____

SECTION – B

5 X 2 = 10

6. Name various types of habitat.
7. What is habitat?
8. Give an example of non-living thing shows any two characteristic of living thing.
9. What is the function of gill?
10. Name the types of components of habitat.
11. List the common characteristics of living things.
12. What do you mean by germination of seeds?
13. What are predators?
14. What is photosynthesis?
15. Define respiration.

SECTION – C

5 X 3 = 15

16. Explain the features of fish which help it to adapt to live in water?
17. How are camels adapted to live in desert?
18. Explain the characteristics of living organisms?