

BHARATH COACHING CENTRE

10th CBSE

Social

Total: 40

Sectors of the Indian Economy

Time: 1.30hrs

SECTION A

5 X 1 = 5

1. How are sectors classified?
2. What is open unemployment?
3. What is distinguished unemployment?
4. Give 2 examples of public sector.
5. Why is primary sector called as such?

SECTION B

10 X 2 = 10

6. What is called the final goods?
7. Expand: GDP, NREGA2005
8. What is GDP?
9. Mention some of the acts that companies in the organized sectors have to follow.
10. Differentiate between the public and private sectors
11. Mention a few activities under the secondary sector.
12. Mention a few activities under tertiary sector.
13. Why are public sectors undertaken by government?
14. Workers are exploited in the unorganized sectors. How?
15. Explain the objective of implementing the NREGA2005.

SECTION C

5 X 5 = 25

16. Why should each of the sectors that we came across this chapter focus on employment and GDP? Could there be other issues which should be examined? Discuss.
17. How are tertiary sectors different from other sectors? Illustrate with a few example.
18. What do you understand by disguised unemployment? Explain with an example each from the urban and rural area.

19. Explain the different types of sectors.
20. Compare the employment conditions prevailing in organized and unorganized sectors.

BHARATH